

Paris Hilton? Lindsey Lohan? Yes! Keep us informed!

Please let me know where these drivers may be heading.

I want to keep off the roads wherever they may be driving in the future, so, yes, kindly keep harping on their problems and include the news as to where they are and whether or not they could be behind the wheel of a car.

We need a three-time loser law for drivers under the influence. Take away their license to drive permanently if convicted for the third time, in the interest of public safety.
